

The Daily Telegraph

TRAVEL SECTION OF THE YEAR

FAR FROM FAWLTY

An intimate B&B in Torquay has cast off any connotations the town has with Basil Fawlty by being named the world's best bed and breakfast.

The 25 Boutique B&B, a six-room hideaway in a revamped Edwardian villa, was top of TripAdvisor's global Travellers' Choice awards, based on the ratings of previous guests. It was praised for its size, cleanliness and hi-tech amenities.

Owners Andy and Julian Banner-Price said: "We love creating special and memorable experiences for our guests and receiving their excellent reviews makes our hard work truly rewarding."

A further four B&Bs in England and Scotland made the top 10.

Make the world your own

50 GREAT