and customer satisfaction.

"With the huge choice of suppliers available to customers online, we hope an award such as this will continue to encourage local residents to look closer to home for a company that offers available stock but with online pricing."

The 25 Boutique B&B rose to international recognition it win the title of Best B&B in the World in the latest Travellers' Choice Awards from travel review website TripAdvisor.

Owners Andy and Julian Banner-Price won the Self-employed/Sole Trader of the Year title.

Andy said: "We've won several awards since we opened, but we're usually up against other hospitality businesses.

"We were thrilled, and to be honest really shocked, to win against such a wide variety of other businesses who were all worthy winners in their own right.

"We look forward to representing the South West in London."
